

VOTE

Bassam Z. Shakhashiri for 2011 ACS President-Elect

I seek your vote and your help so together we can strengthen what ACS does best for its members and for society.

I will serve ACS as an open and uniting leader.

I will work with you to:

- ★ Sustain ACS as the world's leading scientific organization
- ★ Strengthen the total chemistry enterprise: academic, industrial and governmental
- ★ Increase public and private support for research and education
- ★ Promote green chemistry and sustainable development
 - ★ Help the public understand the science of climate change
 - ★ Focus on employment and workforce needs
 - ★ Enhance the quality and supply of teachers
 - ★ Improve scientific communications within and among various cultures
 - ★ Foster international cooperation and collaboration in research and education

www.bzs4acs.org

Bassam Z. Shakhshiri for 2011 ACS President-Elect

- ★ Professor of Chemistry and the William T. Evjue Distinguished Chair for the Wisconsin Idea at the University of Wisconsin-Madison since 1970
- ★ ACS member for 48 years; ACS section and division chair; ACS committees and task forces; tour speaker; symposium organizer at all types of meetings; advocate for ACS in Washington and elsewhere; advisor to ACS officers and staff
- ★ Leader at the local, national, and international levels; NSF assistant director for science and engineering education; founding director, Institute for Chemical Education; founder and director, Wisconsin Initiative for Science Literacy; school board; state and national science education standards task forces
- ★ Over 1300 talks worldwide in colleges, universities, schools, science centers, shopping malls, the U.S. Congress, federal/state/local agencies, corporate and industrial sites; public presentations on radio, television, print and electronic media
- ★ Consultant to federal/state/local governments, industry, private foundations, professional/civic organizations, international agencies
- ★ Over 35 awards including ACS Fellow, the ACS Helen M. Free Award, the ACS Award in Chemical Education, the NSB Public Service Award, the AIC Chemical Pioneer Award and the AAAS Award for the Public Understanding of Science and Technology; the Alpha Chi Sigma Hall of Fame; 7 honorary doctorate degrees; honorary fellowships in AAAS and several state science academies

Vote Sept. 24 through Nov. 12, 2010