

Can YOU explain your research in 3 minutes? Find out!

3-minute thesis is returning to UW–Madison

Friday, November 8, 2019, 9:00am-11:00am | Reception from 11:00am-12:00pm
H.F. DeLuca Forum, Discovery Building | Contact sknott2@wisc.edu with questions

Register to compete at grad.wisc.edu/pd/3-minute-thesis.

This event is free to attend and open to the public. Come to learn, support students, and vote for the “people’s choice” award!

Three Minute Thesis® is an international competition in which PhD students explain their thesis research to a general audience.

Presented by the Madison Chapter of GWIS, the Wisconsin Institute for Discovery, and the Graduate School Office of Professional Development, with prizes and reception sponsored by Gilson, Science is Fun In the Lab of Shakhshiri, and the Wisconsin Initiative for Science Literacy.

