

SCIENCE

MUSIC

PERPETUAL MOTION

Revolutions in 17th-Century Science and Music

a multimedia performance that blends past, present, and future

DAVA SOBEL - narrator

author of Galileo's Daughter

GALILEO'S DAUGHTERS:

Sarah Pillow - soprano

Mary Anne Ballard - viola da gamba

RONN McFARLANE - lute

FREE PUBLIC EVENT

Friday, February 6, 2009, 7:30 p.m.

Margaret H'Doubler Performance Space

Lathrop Hall, 1050 University Avenue

Madison, Wisconsin

LIMITED SEATING

Author Dava Sobel eloquently narrates the story of coinciding revolutions in science and music in the 17th Century, as breathtaking images of Earth and the heavens complement the virtuoso singing and playing of soprano Sarah Pillow, her Baroque ensemble Galileo's Daughters, and lutenist Ronn McFarlane.

Wisconsin Initiative for Science Literacy
www.scifun.org

Sponsored by the Science, Arts, and Humanities program of the WISCONSIN INITIATIVE FOR SCIENCE LITERACY
in celebration of the International Year of Astronomy